My dear Mr Jamain

I trust you will excuse me for not having answered your letter before, for I have been rather out of health lately. I can assure you that the £20 was most welcome, as I have had many expenses lately, add to which, my income is now less by a £100 which was the pension of my poor husband. What I may obtain from the government as his widow I know not, but at any rate some months must elapse before my case is decided.

I have some idea that the income tax has been increased this year, in which case, I should be greatly obliged to you if you would enquire about it of Mrs. Gladgate the Solicitor. for my small income has already been unjustly taxed, I should think through the negligence of the Solicitor who ought to have looked to my interest

I am most grateful to you for your kind mention of us in the Athenæum

Give my love to your wife and Believe me to remain Ever sincerely yours
Fanny Keats de Llanos

P.S. I have a favor to ask of Mrs Jameson, which is, that she would take the trouble to obtain for me, from her Milliner a small model widows bonnet, which I might have copied here, It must be like a large dolls bonnet, for a larger size would not pass through the Embassy If Mrs Jameson can obtain it for me have the Kindness to send it to the Spanish Embassy directed to Sr Dn Francisco Reinoso
